

Attacks of Indigestion

"I believe Chamberlain's Tablets have saved my life, writes Mrs. Maggie Coil, Golden City, Mo. 'I had pains in my stomach so bad I could not live. Our doctor said it was congestion of the stomach. I would go to bed perfectly well and wake up in the night as bad as I could be and live. Our doctor said it would do no good to give medicine internally. He had to inject medicine in my arm. Since taking Chamberlain's Tablets I can eat anything I want without hurting me.' This form of indigestion is extremely painful and often dangerous. By taking Chamberlain's Tablets after eating, and especially when you have fullness and weight in the stomach after eating, the disease may be warded off and avoided. Chamberlain's Tablets not only aid digestion, but strengthen and invigorate the stomach."

How She Cured Her Husband

"For five years my husband suffered with his stomach. The medicine he took only gave relief for a while, nothing cured, writes Mrs. Sarah Baker of Nottingham, Mo. 'Our merchant bought some of Chamberlain's medicine. He last fall and also received some free trial samples of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He gave us some of them and I wanted my husband to try them. He said it would do no good. His stomach had been troubling him worse than ever. At last on Friday I told him if he would not take those tablets I was going to send for a doctor, and he said he would take them. By Monday he was like another man. The blues were gone, no more trouble with his stomach, and the best part is that the trouble has not returned. I cannot praise Chamberlain's Tablets too highly.'"

WATCHMAN

Painfully Burned While Removing Horse From a Burning Barn

LOSS WILL AMOUNT TO $1,500

Equipment of Connell Construction Company, Stored in Structure, Made Practically Useless by Flames—Barn Was Only Partially Insured

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a barn belonging to Mrs. Mary E. Bricker of Academia Monday afternoon.

The barn, which was located on the Wooster road, had been leased by the Connell Construction company, engaged in the improvement of the Wooster road, and was filled with tools belonging to the company. One horse was also kept in the barn and a watchman was employed to take care of the building.

About 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, the watchman left the barn for a few minutes and when he returned he found a fire burning in the stall where the horse was kept. Both man and beast were burned before they got out of the barn which burned so rapidly that none of the contents could be removed.

The barn was insured for about $200, but Mrs. Bricker's loss greatly exceeds that amount, the valuation of the structure being $500.

The loss to the Connell company is estimated at $1,000 and is total, as no insurance was carried.

LITTLE ROW WITH GYPSIES—GALENA MAN WORSE FOR ENCOUNTER WITH ROMANIANS—MUST ANSWER TO HORSE-KILLING CHARGE.

Delaware, O., July 11—All talking at once and in varied languages, the band of 35 gypsies who figured in the exciting encounter with a posse near Galena Sunday were arraigned in local police court yesterday morning on a charge of robbing David Gill. The services of an interpreter were required to obtain testimony in the case.

Gill charged two of the women of the band had come to his place and robbed him of $4. This the gypsies denied, and made the counter charge that Gill had made advances toward one of the women, trying to draw her into his house.

Gill appeared in court with his hand bandaged, stating the wounds were inflicted by the teeth of the women when he tried to regain his money.

The gypsies were fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $21. This they paid.

Gill pursued the band when the women escaped with his cash and shot one of their horses, killing it. The gypsies demand $100 for the horse and Gill will be charged with malicious destruction of property. His case will later come up before the grand jury.

SAVAGE BREASTS

Of West Ohio Avenue Residents Not Soothed by Soulful Chantings Of "Slidley Bridge" Quartet

Music bath charms—unless the music is furnished in the late evening by a quartet whose voices at best are not very good and much worse after filling up on "prune juice," so residents of West Ohio avenue summoned Officers McElroy and Alsdorf to the spring on the banks of the Kokosing to quell an opera that was in progress Monday evening.

The officers found a male quartet vigorously and unharmoniously disturbing the atmosphere and promptly requisitioned the patrol wagon.

The amateur Carusos were placed in the city "cage" to sober up.

FAMOUS

IN SUFFRAGE COUNCILS OF THE NATION

Elizabeth J. Hauser Comes Here Fully Equipped Both to Entertain and Edify Audiences

—Assisted Late Tom L. Johnson

No one in Ohio knows more about the history of the woman suffrage movement, both nationally and in this state, than does Elizabeth J. Hauser, who is one of the trio of suffrage speakers which will be here Friday afternoon. She has been the state association's press chairman, executive secretary and organizer. Before she entered the suffrage work, Miss Hauser was the editor of a weekly newspaper and if she had not chosen to give herself to the suffrage cause she would have made her a mark in the literary world.

She was for years identified with the national association as headquarters secretary and press chairman, and served as Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt's personal representative in the early days of the Woman's Suffrage party of New York. She gave up her suffrage work in New York to come home and help the late Tom L. Johnson in the preparation of his autobiography, "My Story," during the last months of his life.

The constitutional convention of 1912 was then approaching and she decided to remain in her home state. She was at Columbus almost continuously during the constitutional convention and she and Mrs. Upton secured the submission by that body of the woman suffrage amendment. When their work was completed, they had the respect, if not the friendship, of even the men who opposed their measure in the convention.

This year Miss Hauser is in charge of the organization work as the Ohio W. S. A. is organizing by congressional districts, a new plan which, she says, is the best yet attempted for political purposes, that is, in bringing pressure to bear upon congressmen.

Arrested Again; Bondswoman Deserts Him; Wife Sheds Copious Tears—George Moore Passes Anything But Pleasant Morning

A ripple of excitement was occasioned in the office of the county clerk Monday at an early hour, says the Newark American Tribune.

Some time since George Moore was arrested under the "gun totin'" law and a gun found on him. He was recognized to the grand jury by the magistrate and in default was sent to the county jail. Monday morning his grandmother, the aged Mrs. Mary Moore, agreed to go on his appearance bond.

Clerk Horton fixed the bond at $200. Mrs. Moore signed the bond after George Moore had been brought in by Deputy Sheriff Frank Brown. As the bond was signed and Moore started to leave, Officers Abbott and Donnelly stepped in the case and produced another warrant for his arrest. He is charged with burglarizing a saloon in the north side.

The announcement was followed by the tears of the young wife, who came with her baby to meet the husband and father. Mrs. Moore, the elder, took that phase of the affair seriously and expressed herself with some freedom. Moore was returned to the county jail.

LESLIE HULSE, the five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hulse, died Monday morning at the Mt. Vernon hospital of appendicitis.

Mrs. Silkert and son, Lake, and Mrs. Scarbrough and children of Mt. Vernon spent from Thursday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKinstry.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coe and children spent the Fourth at Walhonding. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Zeigler and daughter, Olive, spent Monday with his sister, Leah.

W. Stockdale and family spent the Fourth at Mansfield. Homer Zeigler of Mt. Vernon spent Sunday with his brother, Melvin Zeigler, and family.

Totes His Rivals Around Over the Territory of Proposed Improvements—Takes Bull by Horns and Receives Vote of Thanks

When the contractors, who bid Wednesday for the big city improvement letting, started to arrive Tuesday and gathered in little groups in front of the city offices, they were accosted by Sidney D. Knight of Columbus, one of their number, who said: "Jump in the machine, boys, and I'll take you around."

They clambered aboard the auto and to their surprise, were driven over all the territory concerned in the bids, while their mentor, Mr. Knight, carefully explained the entire situation to all, pointing out the various things necessary to know in order to bid.

Thoroughly surprised and quite taken aback, the men expressed their appreciation to Mr. Knight and voted him one of the most honest and most square contractors they had ever met.

Should Sloan's Liniment Go Along?

Of course it should! For after a strenuous day when your muscles have been exercised to the limit an application of Sloan's Liniment will take the soreness and stiffness away and set you in fine shape for the morrow. You should also use it for a sudden attack of toothache, stiff neck, backache, stings, bites and the many accidents that are incidental to a vacation. "We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment." Writes one vacationist: "We use it for everything from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared and have no regrets.

YOUNGSTER A YOUTHFUL PREVARICATOR, PURCELL SAYS

Story About Parents All Tommyrot—Selfsame Lad Found Playing Game of Chance at Carnival Grounds Tuesday Night

The young lad who, as reported in Tuesday's Banner, was found curled up in the bottom of an automobile parked on North Main street Monday night when the owner started home, did not tell a truthful story, Juvenile Officer Purcell stated Wednesday morning, when he said his parents had deserted him.

The lad, according to the officer, is given over to almost nightly trips from his home, in the extreme northern end of the city, to the bright lights of Main street where he remains until unearthly hours for one so young.

Officer Purcell remarked that the mother of the lad scarcely ever leaves the house, as there are still two younger children to occupy her care and attention. The father is not in the habit of coming down street at nights.

The young boy is very plausible in his stories, the officer stated, and one who does not know him or his family would very readily be deceived.

He sells newspapers on the streets and is in the habit of spending foolishly all the money he makes in this manner. Tuesday night, Officer Purcell paid a visit to the carnival grounds on South Main street and
